Office of Graduate Diversity and Inclusion Spring Speaker Series

“What Works for Underrepresented Students in Higher Education”
By Dr. Deborah A. Santiago
Wednesday, February 10, 2016 at 5pm • Margaret Brent B, 2112 Stamp

“Diversity Through the Eyes of an African American Businessman”
By Dr. Maurice Dorsey
Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at 5pm • Benjamin Banneker B 2212, Stamp
(part of Stamp Black History Month)

“Black Queer Feminisms and the Pedagogical Project: Strategies for Teaching the Self and Negotiating the Academy”
By Dr. Mel Michelle Lewis
Thursday, March 3, 2016 at 5pm • Prince George's Room, Stamp
(part of Stamp Women’s History Month and Co-Sponsored by the Department of Women’s Studies)

“Too Much the Same: Higher Education Diversity Picture Remains Largely Static Since Integration”
By Autumn A. Arnett
Monday, March 28, 2016 at 5pm • Atrium, Stamp
(Co-Sponsored by the Department of American Studies)

“Dissertation Title: To Be Determined’ Answers for When You Don’t Know Which Way to Go”
By Dr. Alecia C. Eubanks
Thursday, April 28, 2016 at 5pm • Juan Ramon Jimenez B 2208, Stamp
(part of PROMISE AGEP PhD Completion Workshop and Co-Sponsored by the Department of American Studies)

Sponsored by
The Office of Graduate Diversity and Inclusion, the Graduate School, the departments of American Studies and Women’s Studies, and the Pepsi Enhancement Fund

For additional information, contact Christopher Perez – cperez6@umd.edu